Friday is Remnant Day, Special Bargain Day.

The public understands us. We never trifle with words. Every plan and movement has a definite individual meaning. The sole object of our remnant day is to dispose of the inevitable accumulation of odds and ends, short lengths, broken sizes and assortments, etc., that results from a Special attention is directed to this week's remnant sale, because all sorts of remnants are here in greater quantities than usual, and owing to this fact are to be offered at very much lower prices than usual in order to assure a quick and complete clearance. Several larger lots of goods are also to be offered at bargain prices.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey entertained family party at dinner last night.

The neighborhood of the Dewey home continues to be a much frequented section by a curious public anxious to get a glimpse of the hero and his bride. All day yester-day throngs of passersby found the sidewalk along that part of Rhode Island ave nue more attractive than that of other streets, and hand-organs, succeeding each other all the afternoon, rendered a serenade quite in keeping with the balmy day and the general enjoyment of outdoor life. It is safe to assume, however, that while Admiral and Mrs. Dewey are not likely to be exposed to the noisy demonstrations shown them in New York, the daily scrutiny of their house may become embarrassing.
